

RUSTON COMMUNITY AND SUPER WALMART MAKE CHRISTMAS WISHES COME TRUE

RUSTON, LA

During the Holidays many of us enjoy time with our family around a Christmas tree full of presents. It is a time for celebration and love. The time is magical and full of wonderment especially for a child. Though most children get to enjoy the holidays, there are many children that do not.

At the Louisiana Methodist Children's Home in Ruston, there are children on campus, in the foster care programs, and who enter care during the holidays that face a Christmas away from their own homes. As part of the Home's annual Angel Tree Program many of Ruston's generous citizens retrieved cards hung as ornaments on a special Super Wish Tree at our local Super Walmart. They purchased the gift and delivered it to the Home to fulfill the Christmas wish of each child and accomplished this super heroic mission.

"Thanks to our amazing community, these children will be able to have a special Christmas," said Michael Garriga, Communications Coordinator for the Home, "and to get up on Christmas day and have the light of hope relit and filled in their hearts."

The Louisiana Methodist Children's Home is one of three residential campuses within Louisiana that provides extensive care for children experiencing behavioral and emotional issues that prevent them from living at home or in foster homes.

Garriga added, "Thank you to Walmart and its workers for being so helpful and amazing during this time. Merry Christmas from all of us at the Children's Home and God Bless."
